

Do You Know Where Your Beef Comes From? We Do!

In today's market, it is very hard to tell exactly where the beef you are serving your customers came from... Wouldn't it be great to be able to tell your customers not only where your beef is from, but that it is a great LOCAL product...mostly grass fed, and raised without antibiotics or growth hormones on a top notch USDA inspected farm and processing facility in beautiful Burlington, West Virginia!

Take time today to try our Flying W Farms ground beef and steaks, and see what beef really tastes like!

We are so confident that you will taste the difference and see the value of adding a quality local beef to your menu, that we are willing to make this guarantee...if you are unhappy with the taste or quality of any of our Flying W Farms beef products, we will pick them up and refund your full purchase price! What do you have to lose...order some Flying W Farms beef today, and you will have happier customers tomorrow!
